Simply the Best

Ask any pizza lover around the world the best way to cook a pizza, and the answer will always be from a brick-oven – the traditional Italian method that’s never been bettered.

That’s why at Thunder Road Grill, we went to Modena, Italy to find our Pavesi brand pizza oven, renown as the best pizza-oven makers in the world.

Why a brick oven for pizza? Simply put, it’s a matter of chemistry and heat transfer that creates a perfectly cooked crust and perfectly cooked toppings in the same moment of time. A perfect pie cooks from above and below, and nothing can create the perfect environment to accomplish that other than a brick oven.

We believe you’ll love our pies!
Try one of our specialties or design your own for dine-in, take home, or to take on the road!
